Friendship in Classical Chinese and Ancient Greek and Roman Philosophy Schedule

College of Fellows, University of Tübingen, Rümelinstraße 27

Friday December 11

Friendship in Ancient Greek and Roman Philosophy

9:30-10:20am:
Daniel Ferguson (Bilkent University)
Friendship in Eudemian Ethics VII

10:30-11:20am:
Robin Weiss (National Taiwan University)
Friendship, Homonoia and Shared Goods in Stoicism

11:30-12:20pm:
Laura Bottenberg (University of Tübingen)
Being Friends in the Roman Empire: Ideals at a Cross-Road

12:20-2:00pm: Lunch

Friendship in Classical Chinese Philosophy

2:00-2:50pm
Douglas Berger (Leiden University)
Growing in Virtue or Growing Apart? Friendship in Early Confucian and Daoist Thought

3:00-3:50pm
Yves Vende (Université Catholique de Lille)
Friends in the Mencius and Xunzi: Readings from Ming-Dynasty Commentaries.

4:00-4:50pm
Dobin Choi (Leiden University)
Friendship and the Virtue of Trustworthiness (信) in Mengzi

8:00pm: Dinner

Saturday December 12

Comparative Approaches

9:30-10:20am:
Matthew Walker (National University of Singapore)
Socrates' Dialogue with Lamprocles, in Dialogue with Confucius

10:30-11:20am:
Guy Schuh (University of Tübingen)
Aristotle and Confucius on How Friendship Shapes our Character

11:30-12:20pm:
Bradford Kim (University of Southampton)
Love, Hate, and Reciprocity: A Comparative Study