According to the law, this contract contains the following regulations:

1. The accommodation contract is completed as soon as the accommodation accepts the room reservation.
 2. It is the duty of the hotel to keep the reserved room only at the disposal of the guest. Otherwise the hotel is obligated to find a replacement for the guest.
 3. It is the duty of the guest to pay the agreed upon room price for the agreed upon length of the contract. This applies even if the room does not meet the guest's demands. If the guest does not follow through with the contract, he or she is still responsible to pay the cost of the room minus the costs saved to the hotel.
 4. If the guest does not take the room, the hotel has the right to rent it further if the opportunity arises.
- We would like to draw attention to the fact that the Tourist Information Center is merely the mediator of the guest and accommodation. We do not act on our behalf. The guest is immediately responsible to the accommodation to fulfill the demands of the contract.
