

REUNION 5th – 7th April 2013 TÜBINGEN SOUTH AFRICA PROGRAM

Tübingen is for me...

- ...a beautiful town and university to Stellenbosch. (Berndt)
- ...a great and memorable place where I made friends, learned the German culture and enjoyed the shopping. I loved all the activities during the programme period, they were informative, engaging and fun. (Boitumelo)
- ...an unforgettable adventure where I met amazing people and had a once in a life opportunity. (Chantelle)
- ...an outstandingly prestigious stepping stone. (Charlotte Thato)
- ...a beautiful city that I was fortunate enough to discover with new friends and my first taste of Europe. (Ciska)
- ...warm people. Barbara Owen, Wolfgang Mekle and Marion Schmidt. (Dione)
- ...a place of experience and fun. (Diphapang)
- ...my first overseas experience and a dream come true. (Faith)
- ...the town of endless possibilities and my home away from home. (Lesego)
- ...cold weather, warm hearts and laughs. (Fran)
- ...a realization that the world is not as big as we think and yet greater than we could ever imagine. (Hannes)
- ...my home away from home. (Gloria)
- ... the highlight of my youth, met remarkable people and still friends even now. An eye opener. (Godfrey)
- ...proof of old-world charm of a bygone era. (Helen)
- ...a place where I can bring my dreams to reality. (Tony)
- ...a little town that transformed my way of thinking about the world. (JD Malan)
- ...a place where I learned about the world in the space of one short, but fulfilling month. It is a place that lives on in my heart. (Jerome)
- ...the best University Town that I have ever visited. (Jongi)
- ...a happy, fun place. (Kelly)
- ...an important life experience. (Kendall)
- ...an incredible place to visit. (Kgosi)
- ...the start of a phase in my life where I grew as a person and began to see the world in a larger perspective and appreciate my home South Africa even more. And of course my second home, Germany, has offered a view of what South Africa could be through the combined efforts of every single citizen to make their country better. (Lindsay)
- ...the first time in my life where I've experienced being care free. (Lizel)
- ...a place where I grew a lot as a person. If I look back at all the great things that have happened in my life over the last five years, I can trace their beginnings back to the time I spent in Tübingen, the diverse group of people I met there and the incredible experiences I had during that month. (Lizelle)
- ...too wonderful to sum up in one sentence. (Lynn)
- ...a once in a life time experience, highlight of my life. (Marcia)
- ...a once in a life time experience. It was the filled memorable event, stunning people and lovely stories. To me Tübingen was a gift from God. (Marius)
- ...a beautiful city and a wonderful experience. (Marsha)
- ...more than meets the eyes. It has this silent roar to it and the more you explore it the more you fall in love with its culture and the people. (Matseba)
- ...the place that has changed how I see people and the world completely. (Matt)

...the most amazing experience of meeting bright and talented young South Africans and having the opportunity to know a world outside of one's own. (Mbali)

...the opening of a global experience. (Yaseen)

...a place that ended my stereotyping, my initial thoughts were that the concept of "German culture" is an oxymoron, "more like black milk" and Germans are just punctual, humorless hard-working, well-organized and square bunch of people but after nodding and saying "prost" to a bar full of strangers drinking Weinschorle and eating Sauerkraut, I wish I had my own pair of lederhosen so I could dance along to Bavarian folk music with the girls wearing Dirndl. (Msizi)

...an eye-opener to new possibilities (Nadia A)

...a beautiful university town which allowed me to experience the German way of life with fun and without fear. (Nadia P)

...THE place where a person can learn a lot about the beautiful culture of Germany, it's just awesome. (Nonkonzo)

...an enriching experience. (Nosipho)
