international summer school education week
jul 26 – aug 02
2020

Tübingen School of Education (TüSE)

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITAT TÜBINGEN
Join us to meet other teacher candidates, learn more about teaching theory and teaching methodology, discuss latest research results with educational experts.

The International Education Week offers ideal opportunities to meet and study with teacher candidates from other countries. Participants work with experienced professors from the University of Tübingen on essential topics of teacher education. They get insight from researchers and expert practitioners.

Topics
- Current Issues of Teacher Education
- Teaching Theory (Fachdidaktik) and Methodology
- Educational Systems
- Exchange of International Perspectives
- Teaching and Learning
- Connecting Theory and Practice

Structure
The program includes subject-specific classes as well as expert lectures and interdisciplinary group work. Choose ONE subject track for the academic program:
- Teaching French (in French language)
- Ethics and Sustainable Development (in English language)

Application
Teacher candidates from all of Tübingen's partner universities are invited to apply. Please find all application details at www.uni-tuebingen.de/en/95235
Applications are open until: April 19, 2020.

Housing
Participants are provided housing accommodations for the whole week.

Financial Support
This project is funded by the DAAD with financial support of the Federal Foreign Office. Successful applicants can receive financial support for travel and housing expenses, further details are described on the website.

Hosting Institution
The International Education Week 2020 is hosted by the Tübingen School of Education (TüSE). www.tuese.uni-tuebingen.de

Contact
Elisabeth Hofmann
University of Tübingen, Germany
Tübingen School of Education Internationalization

international@tuese.uni-tuebingen.de