Student Guide Book

Social and Cultural Anthropology
Institute of Asian and Oriental Studies
Dear Student,

Welcome to Social and Cultural Anthropology at the University of Tübingen. We are very much looking forward to meeting you in Tübingen soon and would like to help you to make a smooth start to your academic life in this beautiful University town.

This brochure provides you with useful information which will prepare you for your arrival in Tübingen and serve as a guide in your first weeks. The aim of this brochure is twofold: first, it includes all necessary details for the formalities such as registration with the university and the town hall as well as courses and other important activities; second, it provides practical information and advice on non-academic activities such as “where to buy...?”, “how to find...?”, “how to do...?”

Good luck and see you in Tübingen!

Pre-arrival preparation

Accommodation

There are important things that you should start dealing with before arriving in Tübingen. One of them is accommodation. Tübingen is a university town with a big flow of local and international students and researchers coming to this university every year. It is highly recommended that you start searching for accommodation well in advance.

Here are several options we suggest:

University Dormitories operated by the “Studierendenwerk Tübingen – Hohenheim”.

Contact details:
Fichtenweg 5
72076 Tübingen
Telephone: +49 7071 969714
Email: wohnheimverwaltung@sw-tuebingen-hohenheim.de
Website: http://www.my-stuwe.de/wohnen/wohnheime-tuebingen/

Note: Please register even if you have not enrolled at the university yet. You will show the proof of enrollment later when you arrive in Tübingen and have enrolled. The University dormitory rooms are in great demand, which is why it is important that you register so that you are put on a waiting list as soon as possible.

For more information on accommodation please visit: http://www.uni-tuebingen.de/de/105
Note: Please bear in mind that the rooms are offered either furnished or non-furnished. The rent for the furnished rooms is higher. Non-furnished rooms are usually empty and you will have to buy all necessary household items starting from bed, table, chairs and wardrobe to all kitchen utilities.

Please also pay attention to whether the room renting is “Warmmiete” (the rent costs includes bills for heating, water, garbage collection) or “Kaltmiete” (the rent does not include mentioned bills).

You also have to pay “Kaution” (security deposit) which is paid once at the beginning. You will get this deposit back after you leave the room. Please discuss the conditions of the deposit with the landlord.

Arrival in Tübingen
This section provides information on getting into Tübingen and things to be done within the first week of arrival as well as further steps to be taken as soon as possible.

How to get to Tübingen

By plane:
The nearest airport is Stuttgart Airport (1 hour). There is an airport shuttle “Airport Sprinter No. 828” that runs hourly from the central bus stop in front of Terminal 1 to the Tübingen main train station (Hauptbahnhof). The cost of one-way ticket is 6,35 Euro (as of 12/2014). Sometimes cash in bigger banknotes is not accepted (e.g., 50 €), that is why it is advised that you obtain smaller denominations in the Airport shops or cafes. Please see the following link for more information, including bus timetable: http://www.bahn.de/regiobusstuttgart/view/angebot/buslinien/airport_sprinter.shtml

By train/bus:
From other parts of Germany you can take either trains or buses, which will bring you to the Tübingen main train station.

For trains

For buses
DeinBus: https://www.deinbus.de/en/
FlixBus: https://www.flixbus.com/
Meinfernbus: http://meinfernbus.de/

When you arrive in Tübingen you might decide to take the inner-town buses to reach your destination. All buses go via the main train station. The one-way ticket costs 2,20 € and day ticket costs 3,70 € (as of 12/2014), which can be bought at the machine either in the bus, or, in some places, at the bus stop as well. The machines in buses accept only coins and not banknotes (1-cent to 5-cent coins are not accepted either). The timetable and the map for inner-town buses can be obtained at the ticket counter of the Tübingen main train station or on the internet on http://www.naldo.de/

If you need help there is a Tourist Information Center not far from Tübingen station. It takes 5 minutes to reach it on foot. For details please see: http://www.tuebingen-info.de/

If you have luggage you want to store for a while, you can find storage lockers (”Schließfächer“) at the station.

Note: Please be aware that Sundays may not be a good time for arriving in Germany as everything is closed including shops.

Registration in Tübingen

It is obligatory in Germany to register as a resident at the Einwohnermeldeamt and if you are a citizen of a non-EU country, you must also register as a resident alien with the Ausländerbehörde. You must register within 7 days of arrival. Both of these offices are located in the same building of the “Bürgeramt” under the following address:

Universitätsstadt Tübingen
Fachabteilung Bürgeramt
Schmiedstorstraße 4
72070 Tübingen

Telephone: +49 7071 204-2020
Email: buergerdienste@tuebingen.de

Note: Please note that citizens of non-EU countries will need to apply for a residence permit at the Ausländerbehörde within their entry visa expiration date. Please inquire in advance which documents will be required.

If you plan to study in Germany, please never enter the country on a tourist visa, because you will not be able to convert it to a student visa.

Health Insurance

You must have a health insurance throughout your stay in Germany. You can have either government-regulated public health insurance (GKV) or private health insurance (PKV).

If you need to provide proof of health insurance before registering/before attaining the visa, you can do this via:

MAWISTA GmbH
Versicherungsvermittlung
Albstrasse 26
73240 Wendlingen
Germany
Getting a health insurance can take from a few days to two weeks, so better enquire early.

Below you will also find details of two commonly used government-regulated public health insurances.

Email: Tuebingen@tk.de
Website: http://www.tk.de/tk/versicherung-und-tarife/117704

Note: There is also a branch of the AOK at the University of Tübingen, in the Mensa Wilhelmstraße, just opposite the Student Administration Office (Studentensekretariat).

Please visit the websites of public health insurances, in case you are interested in public health insurance.

Enrollment

You will be able to start your courses only after you enroll at the University. You have to enroll in person at the Student Administration Office (“Studentensekretariat”) once you have received a letter of acceptance from your chosen study program.

Here are the steps for enrollment:

Step 1: Please go to the Student Administration office and get all necessary forms – enrollment form with enrollment number (“Immatrikulationsantrag mit Matrikelnummer”), data sheet (“Datenstammbuch”), and payment transfer form (“Überweisungsformular”). Please clarify with them the list of documents that you should provide for enrollment.

The address of the Office is the following:

*Universität Tübingen, Dez II
Studentensekretariat
Nauklerstrasse 2
72074 Tübingen*

Normally the list of the required documents is as follows:
- your completed enrollment forms
- the original letter of acceptance, including any certificates specified in the letter of acceptance
- your passport with valid residence permit
- proof of health insurance
- the receipt of the payment of administrative fees
- an extra passport-sized photo for your student identification card and your booklet of academic records ("Studienbuch").

Step 2: Take your letter of acceptance to the health insurance company of your choice. Apply for an insurance verification certificate ("Versicherungsbescheinigung"). There is an AOK public health insurance in the student cafeteria (Mensa) on Wilhelmstraße 13, which is next to the Studentensekretariat. If you already have health insurance from your home country, take the insurance confirmation document to the health insurance company. If you have sufficient health insurance, they will issue a certificate to exempt you from the German health insurance.

Step 3: One passport-sized photo is required for the enrollment documents. There is a photo booth in the Mensa Wilhelmstraße or at the main train station. You can get four photographs of yourself which may be used for enrollment. For the citizens of non-EU countries, it is advisable that you get your biometric photo from professional photographers as that photo will be also needed for the extension of your residence permit.

Step 4: In case you have not done so, the citizens of non-EU countries will need to go to the Ausländerbehörde (mentioned above) to apply for a temporary residence permit. Please take your letter of acceptance, your passport, biometric photo, health insurance, rental contract and proof of financial resources. You will have to pay a fee, but if you have a scholarship from a German institution, then it is free of charge. Please contact the Ausländerbehörde for clarification of the list of required documents and in case you have further queries.

Step 5: Please open a bank account. It is free of charge for students. Use the payment transfer form taken from the “Studentensekretariat” to pay the semester administrative fee. In case you decide to pay in cash, then please go to the cash office (Universitätskasse) on Wilhelmstraße 26. Do not forget to get the receipt of payment from the bank or Universitätskasse.

Step 6: Take the filled-out forms along with the required documents for enrollment to the Student Administration Office (Studentensekretariat) on

Studentensekretariat
Ground floor
Wilhelmstraße 11
72074 Tübingen

If your documents are complete, you will be enrolled. In about a week’s time from the submission of your documents you will receive a computer-printed data form (Datenkontrollblatt) by post. This will include your internet access details and documents.
that prove your enrollment at the University. These documents may be used later on in case you are asked to provide proof of your student status.

Within two weeks after the submission of your enrollment documents you will receive your student identification card.

Note: International students should complete more paperwork with the International Office of the University of Tübingen. For more information please contact Ms. Anette Völkel at:

Email: anette.voelkel@abz.uni-tuebingen.de
Telephone: +49 7071 29 77735

Student Identification Card

The student ID is not only a document that proves your status as a student. This card, which is also called “Chipkarte”, is used for paying at University cafeteria, printing/photo copying as well as laundry services, it serves as a library card and also has a function of a key to certain buildings at the University.

You will be able to upload money to your card yourself at several machines within the University campus. You cannot top up your balance in cash, you need a proper debit card. Normally, it is an EC-card (electronic cash card) that German banks issue.

The machines are located at:

- Mensa Wilhelmstraße (Wilhelmstraße 13)
- Mensa Morgenstelle (Auf der Morgenstelle 26)
- Mensa Prinz Karl (Hafengasse 6)
- Cafeteria Neuphilologikum (im Brechtbau Wilhelmstraße 50)
- Cafeteria Clubhaus (Wilhelmstraße 30)
- Cafeteria Theologikum (Liebermeisterstraße 12)
- Automat Auf dem Sand (Auf dem Sand 14)
- Wohnheimverwaltung (WHO, Fichtenweg 5)
- Französisches Viertel (Wohnheim Wankheimer Täle 9)
- Universitätsbibliothek (Wilhelmstraße 32)
- Neue Aula (Wilhelmstraße 7)

Your student ID card must be re-validated each semester when you re-enroll. You will need to do that yourself in the hall of the Studentensekretariat on Wilhelmstraße 11.

Please always carry your student ID with you as you might be asked to provide it any time on public transportation together with your semester ticket.

Semester ticket

When you receive a computer-printed data form within the first week after enrollment there will be a small certificate, a semester ticket validation, which you will need for buying a semester ticket. A semester ticket allows you to use all inner-town buses in Tübingen for free.
and some buses and trains taking you to the areas surrounding Tübingen either for free or lower prices.

Please visit the following website for more information:
http://www.naldo.de/tickets-und-preise/alle-fahrschein/semesterticket/

You can buy a semester ticket in the Tourist Information Center (An der Neckarbrücke 1 72072 Tübingen) or the Tübingen main train station. The cost of the semester ticket starting from January 2015 is 78,90 € (subject to change). You cannot buy your semester ticket without the semester ticket validation certificate.

Tuition fee, administrative fee and other fees

Starting from the summer semester of 2012 no tuition fee is requested for studying Social and Cultural Anthropology at the University of Tübingen. However, an administrative fee and other student services fees will be charged.

For a semester the total amount of fees to be paid is 142,10 € (subject to change). This amount should be paid between January 15 and February 15 (for the summer semester) and between June 1 and August 15 (for the winter semester) to the following bank account:

Baden-Württembergische Bank AG
Bank account no.: 60050101 Account: 7477503621

International bank transfers:
BIC: SOLADEST 600
IBAN: DE29 6005 0101 7477 5036 21

Late payments will be subject to a fine of 10 €.
You can get the form for payment with full details at the “Studentensekretariat”.

Re-enrollment

You can only enroll for one semester at a time. At the end of the first semester you will need to re-enroll. The details required for re-enrollment, including the amount of fee to be paid, are sent to all students to their University email accounts when re-enrollment periods begin.

Usually, the enrollment period for winter semester is between June 1 and August 15 and for summer semester is between January 15 and February 15. Late payments are subject to a fine of 10 €.

The fees can be paid either via the Campus-System or by bank transfer to the University bank account indicated above in the tuition fee and administrative fee section. Please do not forget to indicate your enrollment number! No other information from you is needed. Within a week’s time you will get your enrollment documents by post, as mentioned above. After re-enrollment you will be also able to extend the validity of your student ID at the machine in the “Studentensekretariat”.

If you fail to re-enroll for the winter semester by September 30 or for the summer semester by March 30 or you have not cancelled your enrollment ("exmatrikulieren") or have not registered an official leave of absence, your enrollment will be cancelled by the University.

Starting University life

Orientation week

An orientation week starts one or two weeks before the beginning of the semester. The aim of the orientation week is to help students/international students who are new to the University of Tübingen or the German education system, as well as to the town or to life in Germany, in general. It is highly advisable that you look through the Orientation Week Brochure which will be prepared and uploaded for every semester. Please check for the online brochure closer to the beginning of semester on the University website.

Programs are offered such as the advisory program and mentorship program on studying and living in Tübingen. Various tours and excursions in and around Tübingen are provided. There is usually also a trip to IKEA – a big furniture store, which is handy for those students who have got unfurnished rooms. There is a series of tours called “Introduction to the University Library”, which we highly advise that you attend. It is offered in both languages: English and German. These and many other interesting events will give you an opportunity to meet new people and have an enjoyable start of your study and life in Tübingen.

Note: Please also visit the website of the Welcome Center of the University of Tübingen, where you can find useful information starting from formalities, search for accommodation and German language Institutes to sightseeing in and around Tübingen. As a Bachelors or Masters student you cannot use the service of the Welcome Center, as it is only for visiting scholars. Nevertheless, the information on their website is available for everyone.

http://www.uni-tuebingen.de/en/international/international-scholars.html

Institute orientation program

During the Orientation week, institutes organize introductory meetings for their own students. You will find exact dates in the Orientation Week Brochure. This gives you an opportunity to find out about the structure of your study program and meet your fellow students. You are invited to the parties organized by Social and Cultural Anthropology after you start your studies. We usually organize a Welcome Party at the beginning of the semester, a Christmas Party in winter and a BBQ party in summer.

Language courses

German language

The center for “German as a Foreign Language and Intercultural Programs” on Wilhelmstraße 22, is one of the busiest places in town where students from all around the world get registered for German courses. The registration works on a first come - first served basis. We suggest that you contact them before the semester starts and get information for registration if you are interested in taking German courses. For more information, please follow the link below:
http://www.uni-tuebingen.de/en/international/sprachen-lernen.html

Other languages
There are other language courses offered besides German. These are English, French, Italian, Spanish, Catalan, Japanese, Russian and Swedish. If you are interested, please visit the “Fachsprachenzentrum (FSZ)” website:

Career service
We would like to draw your attention to the courses offered by the Career Service at the University of Tübingen. Every semester “Studium Professionale” offers courses to develop career-oriented professional skills. The courses cover areas such as project management, work presentations, academic writing, communication and team leadership, conflict management, time management and many others. Mostly courses are taught in German, but there are also some instructed in English.

University facilities

Library
The University Library (“Universitätsbibliothek” or “UB”) is the main library. It is on Wilhelmstraße 32, opposite the Mensa Wilhelmstraße. You will use your student ID card to borrow books and other media. It is highly recommended that you attend the “Introduction to the University Library” tours in the orientation week, which will give you full information on how to navigate the library and introduce you to the facilities that you can use.

There are some 50 other institute and faculty libraries as well. You will need to get separate library cards from these libraries if you want to borrow books there. You will get these cards from those libraries, the process of which is usually quick and easy.

Computer rooms
Most computer facilities are located in the main library. However, each department or institute library has also computers that you can use. For that you need your University login and password, which you get by post once you are enrolled.
Printing facilities

The main library as well as the departments and most university buildings have printing/photo copying/scanning machines. You need your student ID card to use these machines. Students are usually happy to show how to operate these machines, which is easy once you find out. There is also a responsible person in the main University Library who can assist you in using these machines.

ZDV

The ZDV – the Center for Data Processing (“Zentrum für Datenverarbeitung”) is responsible for the IT service of the University of Tübingen. ZDV offers IT courses as well as IT support service to students. There is usually a help-desk in the main library on certain days throughout the semester. Please check with the library staff for the details. You can approach the IT-team when you have problems with internet connection with your laptop or any other computer-related questions.

If you have problems with your laptop you can take it to the ZDV office and the IT-team can check it for you and take necessary action.

Contact details:
ZDV – Zentrum für Datenverarbeitung
Wächterstraße 76
72074 Tübingen
Telephone: 07071 29 70250
Email: hotline@zdv.uni-tuebingen.de

Sports facilities

The University of Tübingen offers excellent sports programs to the students. The programs range from classic sports such as gymnastics, swimming, football, tennis and dance to health and leisure sports such as aqua gymnastics, yoga, Pilates. There are excursions such as ski lessons, canoeing excursions, climbing courses as well as workshops held by internationally renowned guest lecturers from USA, South America and Europe. For more information please visit the University’s Institute of Sports Science website:

Where to buy?

Food

There are several student Mensa and cafeterias operated by “Studierendenwerk Tübingen – Hohenheim”.

11
Mensa/Cafeterias
Unibibliothek (Whilhelmstraße 32)
Whilhelmstraße (Whilhelmstraße 13)
Morgenstelle (Auf der Morgenstelle 26)
Prinz Karl (Hafengasse 6)
Clubhaus (Whilhelmstraße 30)
Theologicum (Liebermeisterstraße 12)
Neuphilologicum (Wilhelmstraße 50)

If you decide to buy products from supermarkets, you can visit Kaufland, Edeka, Aldi, Lidl, Netto, Rewe and other smaller supermarkets.

Clothes
Usually students do shopping either in Tübingen, Reutlingen or Metzingen. In Reutlingen one can find a bigger variety of shopping centers in comparison to Tübingen. Metzingen is famous for its shopping outlet center where one can buy goods from big brands such as Armani, Hugo Boss, Nike, Prada, to name a few.

Technical goods
If you need to buy a cellphone, photo and video cameras, laptops and other gadgets and all domestic technical items starting from coffee maker, ovens, vacuum cleaners to washing machines you can go to Saturn, which is on Schleifmühleweg 36, 72070 Tübingen.

Second-hand shops
You can buy second-hand furniture and household equipment in some second-hand stores or via the internet on:
http://www.abfall-kreis-tuebingen.de/index.php?id=47#c252

Bookshops
Osiander is the best place if you want to buy books, dictionaries, maps, calendars.
Mobile phone companies
The mobile phone companies in Tübingen are O₂, Vodafone, Base, T-Mobile. You can also get cheap pre-paid cards in the supermarkets Lidl and Aldi.

Starting your degree-related courses

Regional focus
The regional focus of Social and Cultural Anthropology at the University of Tübingen is mainly on Central Asia and South Asia. However, the focus is also complemented by research and courses on Africa and the Middle East.

Important materials
It is important that you read carefully the Study Plan, Module Handbook and Exam Regulations as you start your studies. You can find them on our website. They will help you plan your studies and take proper courses and finish your degree program in time.

How to register for courses
You will register for courses and exams via the online portal Campus. Click on the British flag icon for English. You will need your University login and password. In case you are not sure which courses to take, please contact your faculty course advisor.

Language courses

For students in Master's Program
You usually spend one semester abroad in the second year of your studies. That is why it is important that you learn the language of the land where you will be staying. Please take corresponding language courses in the first two semesters of your studies.

Special advice: In order to start language courses and take proper classes in good time before you leave for your fieldwork, it is advisable that you already have your study, work or research plan before you start your studies.

For students in the Bachelor's Program
In the course of your study, you will have a chance to do fieldwork abroad. That is why it is important that you learn the language of the land where you might decide to go. It is advisable that you consider taking corresponding language courses already at the beginning of your studies.
ECTS

ECTS credit points (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System) are awarded for successfully completed courses. The higher the ECTS point of the course, the greater the workload is. One academic year corresponds to 60 ECTS credits that are equivalent to 1500-1800 hours of study in one academic year. Please see your Module Handbook and Exam Regulations for the minimum number of credit points to be taken in order to complete your degree course.

Class timing

The classes in Germany usually start 15 minutes after the full hour. Please pay attention if the start time of a class is indicated with “c.t.” (cum tempore, Latin for “with time”) meaning that the class will start 15 minutes later or “s.t.” (sine tempore, Latin for “without time”), meaning that the class starts at the exact time. For example, if a course starting time is indicated as 10 c.t., it means that actual start time of the course is 10:15. In case no c.t. or s.t. is indicated, then it means that the class will start 15 minutes after the full hour.

Lecture periods

Usually the summer semester begins in April and ends in September and winter semester begins in October and ends in March of the following year. Please check the University website under “Semestertermine” for exact dates. There you will also find the lecture-free dates and the dates for re-enrollment. Please follow the link below. You can get the English translation by clicking on the British flag icon at the top of the page:

http://www.uni-tuebingen.de/studium/studienorganisation/semestertermine.html

Note: Master in Anthropology at the University of Tübingen starts only in winter semesters.
