Japanese Religions on the Internet: Innovation, Representation and Authority

Edited by Erica Baffelli, Ian Reader and Birgit Staemmler

List of Figures vii
List of Tables ix
Note on Japanese Names, Terms and Transliteration xi
Acknowledgements xiii

Introduction 1

PART I: Religion and the Internet in Japan: Overview and Concepts
1 Media and Religion in Japan 7
   ERICA BAFFELLI, IAN READER AND BIRGIT STAEMMLER
2 Internet and Religion in Japan: Innovation, Representation and Authority 20
   ERICA BAFFELLI, IAN READER AND BIRGIT STAEMMLER

PART II: Case Studies
3 The Situation of Japanese Traditional Buddhism in the Web 2.0 Era: Who Attacks and Who Guards the Religion? 39
   FUKAMIZU KENSHIN
4 Preserving the Dignity of Shinto Shrines in the Age of the Internet: A Social Context Analysis 62
   KUROSAKI HIROYUKI
5 The Shikoku Pilgrimage Online: Official Sites, Promotion, Commerce and the Replication of Authority 80
   IAN READER
6 Pilgrim Leadership Rendered in HTML: Bloggers and the Shikoku Henro 101
   JOHN SHULTZ
7 Charismatic Blogger? Authority and New Religions on the Web 2.0 118
   ERICA BAFFELLI
8 Caught in the Net: Celebrity Representation and Japanese Religion from Historical and Contemporary Perspectives 136
   BENJAMIN DORMAN
9 Shaping Shamanism Online: Patterns of Authority in Wikipedia 150
   BIRGIT STAEMMLER
10 Reflexive Self-Identification of Internet Users and the Authority of Sōka Gakkai: Analysis of Discourse in a Japanese BBS 173
   TAMURA TAKANORI AND TAMURA DAIYÜ

Conclusions and Issues for Future Research 196
   ERICA BAFFELLI, IAN READER AND BIRGIT STAEMMLER

Bibliography 201
List of Contributors 217
Index 219