Courses for Your First Semester

You can find our recommended course of your studies from the first to your second year in the module table on the back of this leaflet. The complete table can be found on our website for the B.Ed. English.

The module table is a general recommendation. Your individual circumstances might call for a different schedule. If, for example, you need to fulfill special requirements for your second subject, learning Latin or another language, your course of studies will change.

For the first semester, we strongly recommend the following courses:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Module</th>
<th>Course(s)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Basic Module Academic English</td>
<td>• a seminar with the title “Language and Use”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(ENG_BE_1)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Basic Module Literary Studies</td>
<td>• a lecture with the title “L: Introduction to Literary Studies”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(ENG_BE_6)</td>
<td>• a seminar with the title “S: Introduction to Literary Studies” plus a tutorial accompanying the seminar</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>optional</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Basic Module Linguistics</td>
<td>• a lecture with the title “L: Introduction to English Linguistics”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(ENG_BE_3)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Taking the Basic Modules Academic English and Literary Studies is the absolute minimum for your first semester.

The lecture in the Basic Module Linguistics is normally recommended for the second semester and should only be taken in the first semester if, for whatever reason, you want or need to take further courses in English.

Course Registration

Campus is the current course management platform of Tübingen University. It provides an overview of all courses offered at our university, including the courses at the English Department. In addition, course registration is also handled exclusively via the Campus portal.

Course Registration via Campus

The registration period at the English Department for students in their first semester is from October 4 to October 17, 2019. The results of the registration will be available on Campus on October 18, 2019.

Lectures are usually open to all students who want to register. The number of places in seminars is limited, but we offer more than enough seminars of the same type at several time slots. When registering, please try to be as flexible as possible about the time slots for your courses and use all priorities during the registration process.

Registration Unsuccessful?

If you do not get a seat in any seminar you have registered for, please do not panic! We will assist you to get a seat in the seminars “Language and Use” and “Introduction to Literary Studies.”

To get help from us, please proceed as follows:

Up until the first session, please contact the Helpdesk for belated admissions. If you contact the Helpdesk via e-mail, please always include the title of the seminar, the name of the instructor, the time slot and, most importantly, your student ID (Matrikelnummer).

After the first session, please contact the instructor in question directly via e-mail (see our staff roster). Again, please do not forget to state the title of the seminar, the time slot and, most importantly, your student ID (Matrikelnummer).
