The Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences – Hector Research Institute of Education Sciences and Psychology at the University of Tübingen invites applications for the position of

W1 Professor of Methods in Research on Education

The successful candidate will be employed for an initial time period of four years with the status of civil servant. The contract may be extended for a further two years following positive evaluation. The position has a teaching load of four hours per week prior to a successful evaluation, and six hours thereafter.

The successful candidate’s research area and teaching will focus on research methods, particularly in the area of research on education. Close collaboration is expected with the members of the LEAD Graduate School & Research Network.

The successful candidate will be involved in the following study programs: Master of Education Sciences and Psychology, Bachelor of Education Sciences and Social Work/Adult Education, and the training of students in teaching-degree programs (Lehramt). Additionally, the successful candidate will be closely involved in the training of doctoral candidates affiliated with the institute and/or the LEAD Graduate School & Research Network.

Required qualifications include an outstanding doctoral thesis in Psychology, Education Sciences, Statistics, Informatics or related fields; publications or recognizable potential for publications in international leading journals as well as evidence of teaching effectiveness. This position provides the opportunity and expectation that, in the course of the six years of the contract, the W1 Professor will attain the research and teaching achievements that will qualify him or her for a subsequent appointment as a tenured professor at a university or equivalent institution.

Applicants must be in an early stage of their career; those who have completed a habilitation will therefore be excluded.

Detailed information on the criteria for the interim and final evaluations may be found in our guidelines for review under the following link: https://uni-tuebingen.de/fakultaeten/wirtschafts-und-sozialwissenschaftliche-fakultaet/fakultaet/stellenangebote/#c791034

The University of Tübingen is particularly interested in increasing the share of women in research and teaching and therefore strongly encourages women candidates to apply. In line with its internationalization agenda, the university welcomes applications from researchers outside Germany. Applications from equally qualified candidates with disabilities will be given preference.

Please send the required documents (curriculum vitae, copies of certificates, lists of publications, third-party funding, cooperation arrangements and your teaching experience as well as teaching appraisal sheets), a completed application form (see link above), as well as two publications, preferably research papers and in electronic form, to the Dean of Economics and Social Sciences, Professor Dr. Josef Schmid, or to: berufung@wiso.uni-tuebingen.de by (March 28, 2019). Enquiries may also be directed to the Dean.
