1. Data collection form for participants (overleaf) and note on the regulations on access to buildings and participation in activities of the University of Tübingen

A ban on access and participation according to § 14 section 2 in connection with § 7 of the corona regulations generally applies to persons o who have had or currently have contact with an infected person within the last 14 days (contact also means a patient-related activity without adequate protective equipment (i.e. at least FFP2 mask, protective gown, gloves, protective glasses/visor)
  o who, in the last 48 hours or currently, show symptoms of respiratory tract infection or have a temperature (smell/taste disorders, muscle pain, fever ≥ 38.0 °C, cough or sore throat

A violation of the prohibition of access and participation constitutes is an infringement of law according to § 19 section 5 of the corona regulations (CoronaVO), which can be sanctioned with a fine.

Quarantine
According to §§ 75 section 1 number 1, 30 section 1 Infection Protection Act (IfSG), violation of an officially ordered quarantine due to a positive coronavirus test is punishable by imprisonment of up to two years or a fine.

→ Please turn over to fill in your contact data!

Internal notes

Storage and destruction:
This form is kept safe by the institution that collects the contact data. The safekeeping must be in accordance with data protection regulations (e.g. unauthorized access by third parties). After a period of four weeks after the data has been collected, the data collection form ist o be deleted/destroyed in compliance with legal data protection requirements.

Information in accordance with Art. 13 GDPR (EU General Data Protection Regulation)
When collecting the contact data, please also have some printouts ready of the “Information in accordance with Art. 13 GDPR (EU General Data Protection Regulation) on access to buildings and participation in activities of the University of Tübingen” that can be handed out to the persons concerned. You will find this information at the end of the University's hygiene concept.
Collection of contact data

The data is collected on the basis of §§ 14 and 6 of the "Ordinance on infection prevention measures to counter the spread of coronavirus" (Corona-Verordnung). The University of Tübingen is obliged to collect and store your contact data for the purpose of providing information to the health authorities or the local police authority in accordance with §§ 16, 25 IfSG (Infektionsschutzgesetz).

Your data will be deleted/destroyed in compliance with legal data protection requirements four weeks after it has been submitted.

For further details, please refer to our "Information in accordance with Art. 13 GDPR (EU General Data Protection Regulation) on access to buildings and participation in activities of the University of Tübingen", published at the end of the University's hygiene concept.

Therefore, please fill in the fields below for the category that is appropriate for you.

Employees:

First name, surname: ________________________________________________________________

Department/institution: ____________________________________________________________

Phone number: _____________________________________________________________(if available)

Date and period of presence: ________________________________________________________

Students:

First name, surname; student ID: __________________________________________________

Phone number: _____________________________________________________________(if available)

Date and period of presence: ________________________________________________________

When attending a lecture/class for the first time: name of lecture/class

__________________________________________________________

Visitors/users/participants of events, offers and activities at the University of Tübingen:

First name, surname: ____________________________________________________________

Address: ______________________________________________________________________

Phone number: _____________________________________________________________(if available)

Date and period of presence: ______________________________________________________