

Workshops / Lectures

Would you rather organize your own workshop just for you and your colleagues? Or do you prefer a lecture that specifically addresses your wishes and issues in copyright law in a small, well-known group?

We are happy to come to you personally or meet via Zoom. Whether small or large groups. Whether official seminar or project course, research or working group or a group of students. Whether interactive, with a discussion or an legal overview with a Q&A session.

The copyright office can respond to your individual wishes, especially in this format, in order to organize an event that suits you and your needs.

UNIVERSITÄTSBIBLIOTHEK

You are just starting to write a thesis or academic paper and you want

quote something?

You want to copy
something for your teaching materials ?

And want to share
the materials with the course participants?

You want to use
images or graphics in your work?

Are you about to sign an author contract and are you reading something about rights of use and licenses?

Many do not even know that you always work in the field of copyright law from the beginning of your studies to your habilitation and teaching activities. Much of what is easily done is in fact only possible because copyright laws make it possible. It is therefore all the more important to find out about the relevant conditions sooner than later!

The university library's copyright office offers you a wide range of services to provide you with the best possible support in all questions relating to copyright.

For whom are we here for?

The Copyright Office advises all members of the University of Tübingen and their guests. Regardless of the stage of your academic career, you can make use of all services at any time.

On which topics are we giving advice?

The department is dedicated to all issues relating to copyright. In scientific work, important questions often arise especially from the copyright areas listed here.

What formats of consultancy are there?

The formats of consultancy that the department offers you, are as diverse as the copyright issues that arise in academic work.

Individual consultation

The copyright office will be happy to offer you individual consultations in which your concerns will be discussed in detail. In these sessions, we analyse legal problems that have arisen in your project and together work out solutions on how you can deal best with the respective situation. In this way you will also receive important legal background information for future projects.

Training courses

If you are perhaps still at the very beginning of a project or do not yet have any specific questions about copyright, you can also obtain information in advance from the university library's training courses. In these courses, the copyright office deals with provides basic legal principles on various topics, such as image rights or Creative Commons licenses, and provides general explanations and clues on how to deal with legal challenges in academic work.
