Schedule & Overview of Talks

Thursday, 15.11.2018

Warmup at Neckarmüller from 18:00

Friday, 16.11.2018

9:00   Coffee

9:15   Welcome and Introduction

9:45   Martin Pickering
Understanding dialogue: Language use and social interaction

10:35   Coffee

11:10   Martin Butz
Event-Predictive Gap Filling

12:00   Christian Stegemann
Ambiguity as Gaps in Event Structure

12:30   Lunch and Postersession
Lunch will be catered in front of the conference room. Posters will be on display in the conference room.

14:00   Asya Achimova
More ambiguous questions: Discourse licensing of inverse scope

14:30   Greg Scontras
Modeling the pragmatics of ambiguity resolution

15:20   Coffee

15:50   Stephanie Solt
Pragmatic strengthening and scalar ambiguity

16:40   Peter Culicover & Susanne Winkler
Fragments

17:30   Coffee / Break
Free time to chat / rest etc. before dinner

18:45   Conference Dinner at Forelle
Either meet us there or walk with us from conference location. Capacities are limited: all presenters (talks/posters) and RTG-members are already registered, all others please contact us if you wish to join.

Saturday, 17.11.2018

Coffee   9:00

Jennifer Rodd   9:15
The role of learning mechanisms in understanding ambiguous words

Yuki Hirose   10:05
Predictive processing below the phrasal level

Coffee   10:55

Mante Nieuwland   11:30
Referential ambiguity in language comprehension: a neurocognitive perspective

Lunch   12:20
Lunch will again be catered and posters will still be up.

Milena Rabovsky   13:30
Ambiguity and information gaps in sentence comprehension: Some insights from a neural network model

Stefan Frank   14:20
Sentence comprehension as incremental disambiguation: an information-theoretic perspective

Coffee   15:10

Victor Ferreira   15:40
A Mechanistic Framework for Explaining Audience Design in Language Production

Coffee / Informal Discussion   16:30
Some Drinks and Snacks will be catered to incite informal discussion

Informal Ending   17:30
(possibility to spend the evening together)