Tim studied Economics at U Cologne and Sports Science at the German Sport U Cologne where he also earned his PhD before joining U Tübingen as a Full Professor of Sport Economics in 2012. He is a founding board member of the European Sport Economics Association, member of the LEAD Graduate School and Research Network, and elected Vice Dean for Research of the Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences. Tim's empirical work follows three broader research lines – 'society and public policy', 'leagues and competitions', 'media and management' – and was supported with research grants from the German Research Foundation (DFG), the Swiss National Science Foundation (SNSF), UEFA, and FIFA. Amongst others, he was principal investigator in research projects conducted on behalf of the Federal Ministry of Finance in Germany and Major League Soccer in North America, as well as guest speaker invited by the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), the Council of the European Union and the Sports Committee of the German National Parliament.
