

Tübingen Korean Studies Lecture Series

Frontlines of Social Science Research on Korea

Winter Semester 2022/23, Wednesdays 18:00 c.t., Wilhelmstraße 133, Room 30

- November 9, 2022 Celeste Arrington (George Washington University)
Legal Mobilization and Changing Governance: Disability Rights and Accessibility in South Korea.
- November 16, 2022 Michael Prentice (University of Sheffield)
Supercorporate South Korea: Rethinking Hierarchy through Distinction.
- December 14, 2022 Soyoung Lee (Jeju National University)
The Politics of Regulating History Denial: Current Discourse in Korea on Law against the Distortion of History.
- January 11, 2023 Bok-Hee Chun (Korea Aerospace University/ Korean Institute for Women & Politics)
The Antifeminist Political Strategy of a Political Party.
- January 18, 2023 Liya Yu
Vulnerable Minds: The Neuropolitics of Divided Societies.
- February 8, 2023 Jung-Sun Han (Korea University)
Dark Heritage in Korea-Japan Relations.

