

Matariki Lecture Series 2021: #RaceRacismDecolonisation

Event 3: "Decolonisation"

Join us online on Wednesday 27th October 2021, 01:00 – 02:30am (CEST) for a series of short presentations followed by an interactive Q&A panel discussion.

Dr Lisa Adams (Dartmouth College, USA)

"Decolonising global health through equitable partnerships."

Dr Kristin Moriah (Queen's University, Canada)

„Black Books: The role of black studies at the university."

Ms Arhea Marshall (University of Tübingen, Germany)

"Educating about Racism and its Legacies from the colonial to post-colonial era across the Caribbean and Europe."

Dr Joanna Alexi and Belle Selkirk (University of Western Australia)

"Decolonising psychology and institutional racism."

Professor Michelle Thompson-Fawcett (University of Otago, NZ)

"Decolonising settler-colonial urban planning processes."

To register for your place, please visit:

https://otago.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_UcbQm46vSJGn8-oGQny4Qw

