

The 4th Tübingen-Cambridge Workshop is generously supported by the DAAD Cambridge Research Hub with funds from the German Federal Foreign Office (FFO).

venue: St John's College Cambridge
Fisher Building, Boy's Smith Room
St Johns St, Cambridge CB2 1TP

overnight stays: St John's College Cambridge Guestrooms

Contact details

(registration is required for participation)

Dr Stefan Hanß

University of Cambridge
Faculty of History
Room 6.35
West Road
Cambridge CB3 9EF

e-mail: sh885@cam.ac.uk

Picture credits

Saint Anthony/ Toni Malau, Angola, 18th century (ivory, 11.1 x 3 cm). MET, 1999.295.6, www.metmuseum.org, edited image.

Religion, Culture & Society in the Early Modern World

4th Tübingen-Cambridge Workshop

University of Cambridge
St John's College
18th and 19th September 2017

Programme

Monday, 18th September 2017

9.00–9.15 Ulinka Rublack (Cambridge),
Renate Dürr (Tübingen),
Welcome & Introduction

Experiencing Religious Identities

9.15–10.00 Alexandra Walsham
(Cambridge), *Recycling the Sacred: Material Culture &
Cultural Memory in Post-Reformation England*

10.00–10.45 Christina Farley (Cambridge),
*'[T]he livelier the counterfeit is,
the greater error is engendered?': Re-Assessing
Vividness in Post-Reformation
English Visual Culture*

10.45–11.15 Coffee break

11.15–12.00 Emma Nicholls (Cambridge),
Negotiating Convent Identities in Florentine Tuscany

12.00–12.15 Mary Laven (Cambridge),
Commentary & Discussion

12.15–13.45 Lunch

Shaping the Ottoman Empire

13.45–14.30 Lejla Demiri (Tübingen), *Doing
Theology in the Eighteenth-Century Ottoman World*

14.30–15.15 Helen Pfeifer (Cambridge),
Ottoman Salons & the Making of an Imperial Elite

15.15–16.00 Philip Hahn (Tübingen),
A Patrician as Button Maker: Hans Ulrich Krafft in Tripoli (1574-77)

16.00–16.30 Coffee break

16.30–17.15 Tobias Graf (Tübingen),
Knowing the 'Arch-Enemy': Austrian-Habsburg Intelligence in the Ottoman Capital in the Late Sixteenth Century

17.15–18.00 Christiane Ackermann (Tübingen),
Imago Turci: 'Turk Plays' as a Focal Point in Premodern Media Transformations (Fifteenth to Sixteenth Centuries)

18.00–18.15 Stefan Hanß (Cambridge),
Commentary & Discussion

19.30 Dinner

Tuesday, 19th September 2017

Religion & Power in the Spanish Americas

9.00–9.45 Irina Pawlowsky (Tübingen),
*Making Mission Spaces: Jesuit
Geographical Knowledge &
Cartography of the Upper Amazon*

9.45–10.30 Marie Schreier (Tübingen),
The Limits of Mission & Imperial Control: The Case of Early Modern Panama

10.30–11.00 Coffee break

11.00–11.45 Laura Dierksmeier (Tübingen),
*Indigenous Knowledge as Enlightened Knowledge?
A Priest's Defense of Herbs
Prohibited by the Inquisition in Eighteenth-Century Mexico*

Religion(s) in the Transatlantic World

11.45–12.30 Patrick McGhee (Cambridge),
Sites of Unbelief in the Early Modern World

12.30–13.30 Lunch

13.30–14.15 Naomi Pullin (Warwick/
Cambridge), *'A Holy Nation':
The Transatlantic Quaker
Community and the Problem of the American Revolution,
c.1650-1775*

14.15–15.00 Fabian Fechner (Hagen),
Commentary & Discussion

15.00–15.30 General discussion