

SFB 923 »BEDROHTE ORDNUNGEN«

KNOWLEDGE AND GOVERNANCE IN THE EARLY MODERN SPANISH EMPIRE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

29-30 NOVEMBER 2018
KEPLERSTR. 2, TÜBINGEN
ROOM 1.81

THURSDAY, 29 NOVEMBER

9:00-9:30 Introduction
Renate Dürr / Marie Schreier

SECTION I – LEGAL AND INSTITUTIONAL FOUNDATIONS OF EMPIRE

9:30-11:00
Francisco Suarez and Roman Legal Studies in Early Modern Spain
Alexandra Anokhina (Oxford)

From Ignorance to Archives: The Council of the Indies' Creation of the Spanish Imperial Archive, 1492-1595
Adrian Masters (Austin)

11:00-11:30 Coffee Break

11:30-13:00
The Quest for Experience. The Transfer of Ministers in Royal Courts of Justice and the Development of the Indies as Juridical Space (1567-1687)
Juan Carlos de Orellana Sánchez (Austin)

Personal Visits. The Production of Knowledge and Ignorance in the Making of the New Kingdom of Granada
Santiago Muñoz Arbeláez (Yale/Bogotá)

13:00-14:00 Lunch

SECTION II – THREATS TO THE EMPIRE

14:30-16:00
From Knowing Heresy to Identifying Heretics
Jessica Fowler (Segovia/Madrid)

Knowing the Enemy. The Representation of the 'Moros' in the Early Modern Spanish Philippines
Eberhard Crailsheim (Madrid)

16:00-16:30 Coffee Break

16:30-18:00
Migration Politics in Colonial Spanish America. Knowledge Production and Administration Practices
Martin Biersack (Munich)

Unfitting Preparations. The Politics of Defense of Lima and the 'Unknowing' Threat of Natural Disasters in the Seventeenth Century
Judith Mansilla (Miami)

19:00 Conference Dinner

FRIDAY, 30 NOVEMBER

SECTION III – PRACTICES AND PLACES OF INFORMATION GATHERING

9:00-10:30
Governing of Useful Knowledge in Silver Refining in Colonial Spanish America
Saul Guerrero (Caracas), David Pretel (Mexico City)

Knowledge, Experience and Ending War in the Netherlands
Lisa Kattenberg (Amsterdam)

10:30-11:00 Coffee Break

11:00-11:45
Precarious Knowledge in the Spanish Campaign Against the Darien Colony (Late 17th Century Panama)
Marie Schreier (Tübingen)

11:45-13:30 Lunch

13:30-15:00
For the Public Good. Cooperation in Education in the Viceroyalty of New Granada, 1770-1808
Philip Baltuskonis (Mississippi)

The Epistemic Culture of Empire. Focused and Panoptic Knowledge Production in the Eighteenth-Century Spanish Empire
Matthew Crawford (Kent)

15:00-16:00 Final Discussion