

Content

Foreword

Ruksana Osman and Karin Amos11

Introduction

Elisabeth Hofmann, Thorsten Bohl, Elizabeth Mavhunga,
Felix Maringe & Deborah Diekmann13

1 Teacher Education in South Africa and Germany: Educational, Societal, and Institutional Backgrounds

Chapter 1

Teacher Education in South Africa:
Transformation from Apartheid to Democratic Intentions
Felix Maringe & Elizabeth Mavhunga21

Chapter 2

Teacher Education in Germany:
Educational Structures, Historical Developments and Academic Challenges
Elisabeth Hofmann & Thorsten Bohl43

Chapter 3

How Do Schools of Education Position Themselves Within the South African Higher Education Sector: The Case of the Wits School of Education
Elizabeth Mavhunga, Felix Maringe & Reuben Dlamini61

Chapter 4

How Do Schools of Education Position Themselves Within the German
Higher Education Sector: The Case of the Tübingen School of Education
Elisabeth Hofmann & Thorsten Bohl75

Chapter 5

Inclusive Education and Diversity in South Africa and Germany –
Concepts, Policies, and Historical-Political Paradoxes
Douglas Andrews, Jonas Bischof, Marcus Emmerich & Ruksana Osman95

2	Mentoring in Teacher Education
	Chapter 6
	Teacher Education in Germany – Mentoring in School Internships
	Felician-Michael Führer & Tamara Falcone	119
	Chapter 7
	Pre-Service Teacher Professionalization: Becoming a Teacher in South Africa
	Emmanuel Mushayikwa & Ngonidzashe Mushaikwa	131
3	Pedagogical Content Knowledge
	in Higher Education Teaching and Learning Processes
	Chapter 8
	Investigating Abstractness and Motivation as Scaffolding Elements in Biology Lesson Planning. An Explorative Study.
	Eunice Nyamupangedengu & Christoph Randler	161
	Chapter 9
	Global Realities and Economic (Teacher) Education in the Twenty-First Century: A Conceptual Contribution
	Emmanuel Ojo & Taiga Brahm	181
	Chapter 10
	Shared Perspectives from Two Universities on Teaching Electricity:
	Lessons for Science Teacher Education
	Jan-Philipp Burde, John Bradley & Peter Moodie	197
	Chapter 11
	Education for Sustainable Development as a Challenge for Teacher Education: Implementation at the University of Tübingen
	Diana Grundmann, Matthias Bornemann & Thomas Potthast	215
	Chapter 12
	Education for Sustainable Development (ESD)
	Classroom Practices: A South African Perspective
	Caleb Mandikonza & Portia Kawai	235
	 Authors' information	 251