

The Department of Chinese and Korean Studies of the Institute of Asian and Oriental Studies (AOI), Eberhard Karls University Tübingen invites applications for the position of

Full-Time Lecturer

(Salary according to German TV-L Level 13, 100%)

This position is due to commence on October 1, 2013 and is limited to 6 years.

Requirements for appointment are a PhD degree, scientific qualifications for teaching and research in the field of Modern Korea, extensive teaching experiences especially in the field of German-Korean relations and the willingness to cooperate and contribute to the already existing research projects and programs of the Korean Studies Program at the University of Tübingen. In addition, the candidate is required to be proficient in spoken and written German and Korean.

The chosen candidate will be requested to support the professorship in all matters of the subject, especially in matters of organizing and conducting the courses of study. The teaching obligations are 12 hours per week.

The University of Tübingen is an equal opportunities employer and places particular emphasis on fostering career opportunities for women. Qualified women are therefore strongly encouraged to apply.

Applications from disabled candidates will be given preference if the qualifications of these candidates are identical to those of a non-disabled candidate.

Applications with the usual documents (Curriculum Vitae, an account of the academic background, list of publications and teaching experiences, copies of certificates and an overview of research foci) should be send to:

Junior Professor You Jae Lee
Eberhard Karls Universität Tübingen
Asien-Orient-Institut, Department of Chinese and Korean studies
Wilhelmstraße 133
72074 Tübingen.

The closing date for applications is June 30, 2013.

Tübingen, May 20, 2013