2. What's CNU-GSP?

- Purpose : To offer valuable opportunity for students from overseas to have a better understanding of Korean Language and social customs through academic lectures and field trips. An ideal program for those who would like to broaden their perspective in Korean culture and life style.
- Program Period : Aug. 31 – Dec. 20, 2011(4 months)
Fall Semester at Chungnam National University: Sept. 1 – Dec. 20, 2011

3. Eligibility

- Undergraduate & graduate students from CNU partner universities
- No official English test score required, but sufficient English language proficiency needed to carry out academic study.
- No Korean language proficiency required, but a willingness to learn the language is desirable.
- Nomination from his/her home universities.

4. Priority Application Deadline: April 22, 2011 (Late applications may be accepted.)

5. Course Outline

Throughout the program several courses will be available in English from the disciplines of social sciences and humanities, e.g. history and culture of Korea. These courses will enable students to have a finer understanding of the country of Korea. Three credits are given for most of the classes. A CNU-GSP class for 3 credits meets 3 lecture hours for 16 weeks. If necessary, field trip will be included in lecture hours. Course list and course descriptions will be available in mid August 2011 at cnuint.cnu.ac.kr/eng. We also encourage regular CNU students who have proper English Language competency to participate into CNU-GSP classes so as to make them an international environment where students can share in cultural diversity.

For those who are interested in learning the Korean Language, Korean class will be available for program participants. Students can opt for either Intensive Korean Classes or Evening Korean classes.

Based on students' language ability, we may allow student to take regular academic courses in Korean from CNU faculties. Students may select a regular course(s) based on their major and academic interests.

6. Student Status and Transfer Credits

CNU-GSP students will be considered as international exchange students. Accordingly, students are able to take academic classes (min. 3 credits to max. 18 credits) for earning credits and grades. At the completion of the program, the Office of International Affairs, CNU will issue academics records and certificate for successful completion of the program upon the student's request. The credits earned at CNU are transferrable under the regulations of the student's home university.
