

Internationaler Workshop Freitag, 26. Januar 2018

Großer Übungsraum des Instituts für Osteuropäische Geschichte und Landeskunde (Wilhelmstr. 36)

Russia as a European Power in the Age of Enlightenment

9:30

Elise Wirtschafter (Pomona/Tübingen):
Welcome and Introduction

10:00

Aleksandr Kamenskii (Moscow):
Catherine the Great's Foreign Policy Reconsidered

10:45

Jan Kusber (Mainz):
Changing Coordinates: The French Revolution as a Challenge for Russia in the Reigns of Catharine II and Paul

12:00

Elena Smilianskaia (Moscow):
A British Ambassador in St. Petersburg: Russian life of the Sir Charles Cathcart Family in 1768-1771

14:30

Anna Ananieva (Tübingen/London):
Intelligence, Diplomacy, Entertainment: The Son of Catherine II Traveling Incognito Through Europe

15:15

Claus Scharf (Mainz):
The Power of the Weak Opponent: The
Diplomacy of Alexander I at Tilsit and Erfurt

16:30

Elise Wirtschafter (Pomona/Tübingen):
The Congress of Aix-la-Chapelle (1818) and Russia's Proposals for a Treaty of Guarantee

17:15

Ingrid Schierle (Tübingen):
Commentary / Final Discussion

