

ANNOUNCEMENT

Student assistants (part-time) starting immediately, duration by arrangement

– Lehrstuhl Schulpsychologie (Prof. Dr. Caterina Gawrilow) –

We are looking for students who are fluent in German and English languages especially in reading comprehension and writing skill and can assist in the following tasks:

- Translating items from questionnaires assessing ADHD and related difficulties from German to English
- Translating test instructions and items that are specifically developed for brief assessments using smartphones from English to German

The aim of the project that has been funded by the German Research Foundation (DFG) is to develop ambulatory assessment scales for assessment of ADHD in preschool and elementary school children. The questionnaires are available by our research team.

Ideally, your profile is characterized by:

- You are studying for a bachelor's degree in psychology or a related subject
- Enjoy working in a team
- Commitment

Are you interested in joining our team? Then send your application (including a cover letter in which you briefly introduce yourself and a CV) in electronic form to behnaz.kiani@uni-tuebingen.de.
