

RESEARCH SEMINAR IN ECONOMICS

Sommer-
Semester
2022

May 03	Alfons Weichenrieder, Universität Frankfurt Corporate Income Tax, IP Boxes and the Location of R&D
May 17	Georgios Georgiadis, European Central Bank Global implications of multi-dimensional US monetary policy normalization
May 24	Carsten Eckel, LMU München Supply and Demand Linkages in Exporting Multiproduct Firms
May 31	Rüdiger Bachmann, University of Notre Dame Monopsony Makes Firms not only Small but also Unproductive: Why East Germany has not Converged
Jun 14	Johannes Fleck, Federal Reserve Board Tax and Transfer Progressivity at the U.S. State Level
Jun 21	Martin Huber, Universität Freiburg Learning identification of treatment effects in data
Jun 28	Charlotte Bartels, DIW Berlin Born in the land of milk and honey: the impact of economic growth on individual wealth accumulation
Jul 05	Martin Simmler, Oxford University Leveling the Playing Field: Constraints on Multinational Profit Shifting and the Performance of National Firms
Jul 12	Robert Jäckle, Technische Hochschule Nürnberg Can Defaults Change Behavior When Post-Intervention Effort is Required? Evidence from Education
Jul 19	Margarita Rubio, University of Nottingham Fiscal and Macprudential Policies in a Monetary Union
Jul 26	Alexander Meyer-Gohde, Universität Frankfurt Backward Error and Condition Number Analysis of Linear DSGE Solutions The seminar takes place 14:15 – 15:45 in Gebhard-Müller-Saal, Nauklerstr. 47, ground floor. Everyone is invited.

Organization:
Prof. Dr. Valeria Merlo
International Economics and International Taxation