

The Pilot E-Tandem Language Exchange Project

Calling Law Students!

Tübingen Language Learning Center is collaborating with the Modern Language Centre at King's College London on a pilot e-tandem language exchange project between German and English Law students. While promoting intercultural exchange, you'll have the opportunity to interact with a native English speaker and to enrich your language skills, while also supporting the development of your tandem's German language skills.

You have the possibility of acquiring 1 ECTS, a major plus point on your CV and a certificate of participation, so sign up today!

If you're a German-speaking Law student with at least a B2 level of English, don't hesitate to join the project – contact Ellie Großmann for more information:
