

With the generous funding from the Academy of Korean Studies for the Core University Program for Korean Studies, the Department of Chinese and Korean Studies of the Institute of Asian and Oriental Studies (AOI) at Eberhard Karls University Tübingen invites applications for the following position:

Postdoctoral Fellow in Tübingen Global Korea Project

(Salary according to German TV-L 13, 100%)

The contract period for this position is due to commence on January 1, 2017, and ends on December 31, 2019 (3 years).

Requirements for appointment are a Ph.D.-degree in Korean Studies or a related discipline, as well as proficiency in spoken and written Korean and in German or English. The Ph.D. must be completed by the time of appointment.

The fellow is expected to participate and contribute to research projects and programs in the Tübingen Global Korea Project, especially in the fields of Global Cold War of Korea, Korea's Colonialism in the Global Perspective, and/or Korea's Global Migrations. The Korean Studies Program is especially interested in candidates whose research can complement and strengthen the existing approach of situating the study of Korean history, society, and culture into transnational and global contexts. The fellow is expected to teach two courses per semester (4 hours per week) and to contribute to administrative work, including assistance in the administration of the Tübingen Global Korea Project.

Applications should be composed in English and addressed to the Director of Korean Studies, Prof. You Jae Lee. Applications will be accepted only in electronic form (PDF) and should be sent to Prof. You Jae Lee (Email: lee@aoi.uni-tuebingen.de) and cc'ed to Dr. Taejin Hwang (Email: taejin.hwang@uni-tuebingen.de). Applications should consist of the following documents: 1) letter of application, 2) curriculum vitae, 3) overview of research foci, 4) dissertation abstract and introduction or a sample chapter, 5) copies of B.A./M.A./Ph.D. certificates, and 6) transcripts.

The closing date for applications is October 1, 2016. Those short-listed will be contacted in October for an interview.

The University of Tübingen is an equal opportunities employer and places particular emphasis on fostering career opportunities for women. Qualified women are therefore strongly encouraged to apply. Applications from disabled candidates will be given preference if the qualifications of these candidates are identical to those of a non-disabled candidate.

For further questions about this position, please contact Prof. You Jae Lee, Director of the Tübingen Global Korea Project and the Head of the Korean Studies Program at the University of Tübingen.

Eberhard Karls Universität Tübingen
Institute of Asian and Oriental Studies
Department of Chinese and Korean studies
Wilhelmstraße 133
72074 Tübingen, Germany
www.korea.uni-tuebingen.de