

Curriculum Vitae

Prof. Dr. Heike Brötz-Oesterhelt

from 2014/07	Full Professor (W3), head of department for „Microbial Bioactive Compounds“, Interfaculty Institute for Microbiology and Infection Medicine, University of Tuebingen, Germany
2010/03 – 2014/06	Professor (W2) for „Pharmaceutical Biology“ at the Institute for Pharmaceutical Biology and Biotechnology, University of Duesseldorf
2009 – 2010/02	Head of Bacteriology, AiCuris GmbH & Co. KG, Wuppertal, Germany
2007	Habilitation in Pharmaceutical Microbiology, University of Bonn
2006 – 2009	Head of Antibacterial Research, AiCuris GmbH & Co.KG, Wuppertal
2004 – 2006	Biological Coordinator of Exploratory Antibacterial Research, Bayer HealthCare, Wuppertal, Germany
1998 – 2003	Senior scientist, project manager, Bayer HealthCare, Wuppertal
1993 – 1997	PhD student in the group of Prof. Sahl, Institute of Medical Microbiology, University of Bonn, working on the mechanism of action of the lantibiotic mersacidin
1992	Diploma in Biology, University of Bonn

Honours and Awards:

2016	Elected Co-Chair of Gordon Research Conference “New antibacterial discovery and development” Il Chiocco, Italy, March 2016
2006	Clinical Research and Development Publication Award, Pfizer Inc.
2004	Research Innovation Prize of the Bayer HealthCare AG
1998	PhD Award of the German Association for General and Applied Microbiology VAAM
1998	GEFRUB PhD Award of the University of Bonn
1992	Grant of the "Studienstiftung des deutschen Volkes"

Affiliation to panels, advisory boards, editorial boards

2017 – date	Programme Committee “Irseer Naturstofftage”
2017 – date	Editorial board “ACS Infectious Diseases”
2010 – 2015	German Pharmacopoeia Commission for Microbiology
2009 – 2014	Advisory board Interfaculty Institute for Microbiology and Infection Medicine, University of Tübingen (IMIT)
2009 – 2013	Advisory board German Association for General and Applied Microbiology (VAAM)
2009 – date	Editorial board “Microbial Drug Resistance”