

Guide: How to filter specific courses in English from Alma

1. Visit Alma <https://alma.uni-tuebingen.de/> (You do not need to be logged in!)
2. Click on “Studies offered” and then “Search for courses”

This screenshot shows the search criteria form. It has two main input fields: "Search words" with a placeholder "e.g. number, title, instructors" and "Term" with a dropdown menu set to "winter term 2022". Below these fields are three buttons: "Search", "Show all possible search criteria" (which is circled in red), and "Help for search".

3. Click on the lens “Show all possible search criteria”
4. Choose English as the teaching language

This screenshot shows the search results page. At the top, there are buttons for "Search", "Reset", "Show only quick search criteria", and "Help for search". Below this is a "Save search" button. The page is divided into several sections: "Basic data", "Structure", and "Instructors, locations and dates". In the "Basic data" section, the "Teaching language" dropdown is set to "english" and is circled in red. In the "Structure" section, the "Organizational unit" dropdown is set to "Department of Philosophy and Media (incl. Sub-Items)" and is circled in red. Below this, there are buttons for "Change the selection" and "Delete selected items". In the "Instructors, locations and dates" section, there are fields for "Instructors", "Room", "Date of course", and "Weekday", each with a "Select" button.

5. Continue to click on “Select” at the Organizational unit

6. Now all the different faculties will show up

7. Decide on the specific faculty or department for a more precise search and click both of the boxes – Example: Department of Philosophy and Media
