§ 2 Requirements for admission to program

(1) ¹A prerequisite for studies in this Master's program is a grade of 2.5 or better in a Bachelor's degree in the subject of Business and Economics, in a related program covering basically the same material, or an equivalent degree. ²Furthermore, the applicant must demonstrate successfully completed coursework in the following subjects in particular in his/her Bachelor's studies:

- advanced knowledge of business administration and

- advanced knowledge of quantitative methods of economics

³The respective examination board will decide on the equivalency of a degree and on whether the prerequisite in sentence 2 above has been met. ⁴The board of examiners may transfer the making of this decision revocably to the head of the board. ⁵If there is a restricted number of admissions, statutes may specify that the decision is instead made by a selection committee formed for the relevant selection process.

(2) To take part in the Master's program, applicants must also document knowledge of English at least at the level of B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

- and are able to apply their knowledge and understanding as well as their problem-solving skills in new and unfamiliar situations related to their field of study in a wider or multidisciplinary context (instrumental competencies),

- and to make academically sound decisions on the basis of incomplete or limited information, taking into account social, scientific and ethical findings resulting from the application of their knowledge and from their decisions,
- to acquire new knowledge and skills independently and to carry out largely self-directed and/or autonomous independent research- or application-oriented projects (systemic competencies),
- to communicate their conclusions and the information and motives underlying them to expert representatives and laypersons in a clear and unambiguous manner, to exchange information, ideas, problems and solutions with both experts and laypersons on an academic level and to assume prominent responsibility in a team (communicative competencies).
