

South Asia Reading Group

room 3.08 (third floor) in Nauklerstrasse 35

Thematic Focus : The Body in South Asia

- 25th April, Thursday 12:15 PM – Claire Maes, The Problem of the Body in Indian Asceticism
- 15th May, Wednesday 12:15 PM - Carola Lorea, The Reproductive Body: Childlessness in India and Bangladesh
- 20th June, Thursday 12:15 PM - Bani Gill, Race, Caste and the Body in India
- 18th July, Thursday 12:15 PM - Karin Polit, Divine Bodies

The South Asia Reading Group aims to critically engage with questions pertaining to the complex sociopolitical and religious landscape of South Asia, particularly regarding marginalized communities and their interactions with the state. It provides an opportunity for interdisciplinary exchange and the cultivation of an enriching academic community.

We will be meeting in person, as well as online at this Zoom link:

<https://zoom.us/j/98178235115>

Readings will be shared via a Google folder, which can be reached via QR-Code or the following Link:

<https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1d9cN6Lc9ZRXxA4xKjivEv8eG26gwkkku?usp=sharing>

If you would like to participate or have questions, write an e-mail to carola.lorea@uni-tuebingen.de

