- Access and download course material, upload exercises, find course colleagues

The screenshot shows the Ilias interface for the course "MSc Container Module Data Analysis and Modeling Methods - GIS (Introduction)". The browser address bar shows the URL: https://ovidius.uni-tuebingen.de/ilias3/ilias.php?ref\_id=4546703&mv=1&set\_mode=flat&cmd.... The page header includes the university logo and navigation breadcrumbs: "...mer semester 2024 > 7 Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences > Geosciences, Geography > M.Sc. Geowissenschaften (Version 2015) > MSc Container Module Data Analysis and Modeling Methods - GIS (Introduction)".

The main content area is titled "MSc Container Module Data Analysis and Modeling Methods - GIS (Introduction)" and includes a "Member View" button. Below the title, there is a tabbed interface with "Content", "Info", "Members", and "Learning Progress" tabs. The "Content" tab is active and shows a list of course materials:

- 01_Lectures
- 02_Exercises
- 03_Final_Poster

Each item has a folder icon and a dropdown arrow. To the right of the content list, there is a "News" section with a pagination control (1, 2, 3, 4) and several entries, each stating "File has been added." followed by the filename and the date "Today, 13:xx".

Stay informed and in contact via Horde

- Access your mailbox and compose new mails
- Create (sub-)folders to manage your mailbox
- Automatically redirect messages to your preferred mail address
- Filter for e.g., bulk messages to easily sort things out

Other exchange platforms: moodle and timms

- Some lecturers use moodle to provide lecture material, conceptualised similar to Ilias
- Access and download course material, upload exercises
- Video platform timms provides recorded lecture/study material

The screenshot displays the TIMMS (Tübinger Internet MultiMedia Server) website. The header includes the logos for Eberhard Karls Universität Tübingen and the Zentrum für Datenverarbeitung (ZDV). A navigation menu contains links for TIMMS, MEDIEN FINDEN, INFO, KONTAKT, RECHTLICHES, and TIMMSCAST. The main content area is titled 'Tübinger Internet MultiMedia Server' and features a 'Medien finden' section. Below this, there is a heading for 'Vorlesungen im Wintersemester 2023-2024' with a 'Seitenanfang' link. The page lists several lecture courses, each with a small video thumbnail and a red play button icon. The visible lecture titles and descriptions are:
