A. Validity of General Provisions and admission requirements

§ 1 Validity of General Provisions

The University of Tübingen exam regulations for Master's degree programs culminating in the academic degree of Master of Science (M.Sc.) / Master of Arts (M.A.) – Master's degree framework exam regulations (MRPO) – as amended represent the General Provisions of these exam regulations and are an integral part of them, insofar as no more specific provisions have been made.

§ 2 Requirements for admission to program

(1) <sup>1</sup>A prerequisite for studies in this Master's program is a grade of 2.5 or better in a Bachelor's degree in the subject of Business and Economics, in a related program covering basically the same material, or an equivalent degree. <sup>2</sup>Furthermore, the applicant must demonstrate successfully completed coursework in three of the following subjects in particular in his/her Bachelor's studies:

- advanced knowledge in micro- and macroeconomics,
- advanced knowledge of international economics and politics,
- quantitative methods of quantitative methods of economics
- advanced knowledge of financing and investment theory.

<sup>3</sup>The respective examination board will decide on the equivalency of a degree and on whether the prerequisite in sentence 2 above has been met. <sup>4</sup>The board of examiners may transfer the making of this decision revocably to the head of the board. <sup>5</sup>If there is a restricted number of admissions, statutes may specify that the decision is instead made by a selection committee formed for the relevant selection process.

(2) To take part in the Master's program, applicants must also document knowledge of English at least at the level of B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

B. Goals, content and structure of the program

§ 3 Goals and contents of program, regular duration of study, scope of program

(1) <sup>1</sup>The Master of Science program (M. Sc) in European Economics (hereinafter: the program) enables students to acquire the specific qualifications, competencies, knowledge, skills and abilities required in the subject of European Economics under § 7 (1) of the MRPO. <sup>2</sup>The objective of the program is to deepen or expand the knowledge acquired in the Bachelor's degree, thus providing the basis for the development and/or application of the student's own ideas (application or research-oriented); graduates possess a broad, detailed and critical understanding at the cutting edge of knowledge in one or more specialized fields

- and are able to apply their knowledge and understanding as well as their problem-solving skills in new and unfamiliar situations related to their field of study in a wider or multidisciplinary context (instrumental competencies),
- to integrate knowledge and deal with complexity,
- and to make academically sound decisions on the basis of incomplete or limited information, taking into account social, scientific and ethical findings resulting from the application of their knowledge and from their decisions,
- to acquire new knowledge and skills independently and to carry out largely self-directed and/or autonomous independent research- or application-oriented projects (systemic competencies),
- to communicate their conclusions and the information and motives underlying them to expert representatives and laypersons in a clear and unambiguous manner, to exchange information, ideas, problems and solutions with both experts and laypersons on an academic level and to assume prominent responsibility in a team (communicative competencies).

(2) <sup>1</sup>The regular duration of study for this degree program is four semesters. <sup>2</sup>The program comprises 120 ECTS credit points (CP).

(3) Over and above the number of credit points prescribed for the degree program according to these regulations, students may obtain no more than a 30 additional credit points from the degree program modules specified in § 6 (1) and § 7 (1); in all other respects, § 2 (5) of the Master's degree framework exam regulations (MRPO) applies.

§ 4 Academic degree

The academic degree "Master of Science" (abbr. "M.Sc.") is conferred on the basis of a successful completion of the program.

§ 5 Program Structure

(1) <sup>1</sup>Students complete a program at the University of Tübingen and at a partner university abroad to earn CP as set out in § 3 (2). <sup>2</sup>This program may be completed in one of two variants.

(2) <sup>1</sup>The program may also be completed with a PhD orientation focus. <sup>2</sup>For the successful completion of the variant with PhD orientation, the successful completion of a total of at least 18 CP from modules is a prerequisite; these must be marked as "PhD-oriented" in the module handbook and may not be assigned to the Core Studies area.

(3) As part of the program, students should complete practical work (an internship) which serves the program's qualification goals.

§ 6 Variant A

(1) The program set out in § 5 (1) sentence 1 consists of the following modules in the variant A:

Semester no.	Module no.	P/WP	Module title	Work for assessment	CP
Core Studies Area
1-2		P	Core Studies Focus I	written or oral	9
1-2		P	Core Studies Focus II	written or oral	9
Specialization Studies Area
1-2		P/WP	Specialization Studies Focus I	written or oral	6-27	33-42
1-2		P/WP	Specialization Studies Focus II	written or oral	6-27
Elective Studies Area
1-2		WP	Free Elective Studies	written or oral	0-9
Study Abroad area
3-4		P	Modules amounting to 60 CP (including the Master's thesis) at a partner university abroad, specified by a cooperation agreement	For coursework to be assessed in this area, see partner institution's provisions	60

Abbreviations: FS = recommended semester (subject to availability and change, see module handbook); module no. = current module no. or abbreviation (subject to change, see module handbook), P = compulsory, WP = required elective, CP = credit points, K = written exam, H = assignment; mP = oral exam; final module: Master's thesis and, if required by the exam regulations or the module handbook, an oral examination in the final module.

(2) <sup>1</sup>In the Specialization Studies areas, students must obtain at least 6 CP and at most 27 CP from the modules marked in the handbook as Specialization Studies Focus I and Specialization Studies Focus II modules; students may obtain up to 9 CP in the modules marked as Free Elective Studies in the handbook. <sup>2</sup>A total of 33-42 CP are to be obtained in the Specialization Studies Focus I and Focus II areas; in the Specialization Studies Focus I and Specialization Studies Focus II areas, along with the Free Elective Studies areas, 42 CP overall must be obtained.

(3) <sup>1</sup>As part of the variant A of this program, the student is to complete a period of studies comprising 60 CP at an institution of higher education outside Germany, usually in the third and fourth semesters; these studies abroad must serve the program's qualification goals. <sup>2</sup>The 60 CP for studies abroad are allocated in the area Study Abroad (see table in paragraph 1). <sup>3</sup>Further regulations regarding work to be completed at the university abroad may be set out in the module handbook; such requirements may be set out in a Learning Agreement. <sup>4</sup>Coursework at the university abroad is to be completed according to the regulations of the relevant institution. <sup>5</sup>In justified cases the responsible examination board may permit exceptions to sentence 1, upon application. <sup>6</sup>If an exception is approved under sentence 5, the responsible examination board will decide on the substitute modules and/or classes to be completed, under consideration of the provisions set out in § 35 LHG and § 38 MRPO;

§ 7 Variant B

(1) The program set out in § 5 (1) sentence 1 consists of the following modules in the variant B:

Se- mes- ter no.	Module no.	P/WP	Module title	Work for as- sessment	CP
Study Abroad area
1-2		P	Modules amounting to 60 CP at a partner university abroad, specified by a cooperation agreement	For course- work to be as- sessed in this area, see part- ner institution's provisions	60
Core Studies Area
3-4		P	Core Studies Focus I	written or oral	9
Specialization Studies Area
3-4		P/WP	Specialization Studies Focus I	written or oral	9-18
Elective Studies Area
3-4		WP	Free Elective Studies	written or oral	0-9
Compulsory module
3-4	CM5_04	P	Advanced Topics in European Economics	written or oral	9
Final Module
3-4	MA5_04	P	Master Thesis in European Economics	Master's thesis	24

(2) <sup>1</sup>In the Specialization Studies area, students must obtain at least 9 CP and at most 18 CP from the modules marked in the handbook as Specialization Studies Focus I modules; students may obtain up to 9 CP in the modules marked as Free Elective Studies in the handbook. <sup>2</sup>A total of 18 CP are to be obtained in the Specialization Studies Focus I and the Free Elective Studies areas.

(3) <sup>1</sup>As part of the variant B of the program, the student is to complete a period of studies at a university abroad of 60 CP, usually in the first and second semester; these studies abroad must serve the qualification goals of the program. <sup>2</sup>The 60 CP for studies abroad are allocated in the area Study Abroad (see table in (1)). <sup>3</sup>Further regulations regarding work to be completed at the university abroad may be set out in the module handbook; such requirements may be set out in a Learning Agreement. <sup>4</sup>Coursework at the university abroad is to be completed according to the regulations of the relevant institution. <sup>5</sup>In justified cases the responsible examination board may permit exceptions to sentence 1, upon application. <sup>6</sup>If an exception is approved under sentence 5, the responsible examination board will decide on the substitute modules and/or classes to be completed, under consideration of the provisions set out in § 35 LHG and § 38 MRPO;

§ 8 Module coursework

<sup>1</sup>Details of the coursework required in each of the modules is set out in the module tables in these regulations (§§ 6-7) and in the handbook. <sup>2</sup>Assessment must be clearly specified as to its type and scope, if this is not set out in the module table.

§ 9 Languages of instruction and examination

<sup>1</sup>English is the language of instruction and examination in this degree program. <sup>2</sup>Classes and module coursework may be conducted, promoted and taught in the following languages:

- German,
- Italian,
- French.

<sup>3</sup>Furthermore, teachers and examiners may promote and/or conduct classes and/or module coursework in another language for the purpose of teaching that language. <sup>4</sup>Exams are usually conducted in the language in which the relevant classes were held; other assessment is usually conducted in the language in which the relevant classes were held. <sup>5</sup>It is therefore assumed that students have sufficient knowledge of the relevant languages.

C. Assessment in the program

I. General Provisions for assessed coursework

§ 10 Multiple-choice procedure

(1) <sup>1</sup>Written assessment in the form of examinations may, in the following cases, be wholly or partly conducted in such a way that the candidate must indicate which of the answers - presented with the examination questions - he or she considers to be correct (multiple-choice procedure). <sup>2</sup>The conditions for the conducting of examinations including multiple-choice questions are:

- the examination tasks are set by the person or persons acting as the examiner, and
- the examinations, after they have been completed, are corrected in their entirety by the person or persons acting as examiners, and
- the examinations are graded by the person or persons acting as examiners according to their respective individual grading scheme according to § 19 MRPO.

<sup>3</sup>Prior to the correction of the examinations, no determination may be made regarding certain assessments, such as the setting of certain grades if a certain proportion of the examination questions are answered correctly or if a certain number of points is achieved.

(2) Regarding assessment conducted via online attendance in accordance with § 12 MRPO, para. (1) applies accordingly.

II. Special provisions for the final module

§ 11 Final module

(1) <sup>1</sup>The student writes the Master's thesis in the final module; this is regulated in § 28 of the MRPO. <sup>2</sup>In the final module, 24 credit points must be obtained.

(2) The time limit for writing a Master's thesis - from the issuing of the topic to submission of the thesis - is 18 weeks.

(3) In Variant B of the program, the Master's thesis process is set in the Study Abroad area and is conducted in accordance with the applicable regulations of the partner university abroad.

§ 12 Subject-specific provisions for admission to final module

The admission requirements for the Master's thesis are, in addition to the prerequisites specified in the MRPO, the successful completion of modules worth a total of at least 30 CP from the areas/modules listed in the tables in § 6 (variant A) or § 7 (variant B).

D. Deadlines for examinations in the program

§ 13 Deadline for completion of studies

<sup>1</sup>All module coursework required under the exam regulations must be completed by the end of the student's seventh semester in the subject. <sup>2</sup>If this time limit is exceeded, the student's right to be examined is lost, unless the failure to meet the deadline is beyond the control of the student.

E. Master's overall grade, certificate and other documentation

§ 14 Calculation of overall grade

The overall grade for the program is calculated from the average of all graded modules, as weighted by credit points.

§ 15 Certificate and other documentation

Along with the details provided for under § 36 (1) MRPO, the following details are included on the certificate:

- the PhD Orientation focus completed according to § 5 (2)
- information regarding the successful completion of a double-degree program, if applicable.

F. Special regulations for cooperations with other institutions of higher education

§ 16 Grading of Master's thesis

The Master's thesis may be evaluated by persons authorized to conduct examinations at the cooperating institution of higher education.

§ 17 Cooperation partners

<sup>1</sup>To enable the compulsory studies abroad in the program, the University of Tübingen shall make a cooperation agreement with one or more institutions of higher education outside Germany. <sup>2</sup>The cooperation agreement(s) will name the participating institution of higher education and regulate in detail the framework conditions of the cooperation and the exchange program.

§ 18 Participation in the exchange programs

To participate in the exchange programs in the double-degree variant, students must apply in advance to the School of Economics by 15 May - prior to commencing the degree studies.

§ 19 Module coursework abroad

Module coursework in the double-degree variant, which is to be completed at an institution of higher education outside Germany in accordance with the tables in §§ 6-7, must be completed in accordance with the regulations applicable at the respective institution abroad.

§ 20 Double degree

Upon successful completion of their studies, students will receive their academic degree from the respective partner institution abroad in line with its respective regulations.

G. Closing remarks

§ 21 Effective date and transitional arrangements

<sup>1</sup>These exam regulations come into effect on the date of their publication in the University of Tübingen's official bulletin, the Amtliche Bekanntmachungen. <sup>2</sup>Their first semester of validity is the winter semester 2023/24. <sup>3</sup>Students who commenced their studies at the University of Tübingen prior to the semester specified in sentence 2 are - subject to the following provisions - entitled to complete their module coursework in this degree program at the University of Tübingen by 31 March 2026 under the previously valid rules; however, regarding the examination board, § 6 MRPO applies. <sup>4</sup>Students who commenced their studies at the University of Tübingen prior to the semester specified in sentence 2, are entitled to switch and complete their module coursework in the degree program under these current exam regulations upon written application, which must be submitted to the central examination office by 31 March 2024. <sup>5</sup>If no application under sentence 4 above is lodged, then - after the deadline specified in sentence 3 - the module coursework in the degree program must be completed under these current regulations. <sup>6</sup>Module coursework completed previously will only be accredited according to the new exam regulations and the corresponding module handbook, subject to the following provisions. <sup>7</sup>These exam regulations do not grant any new or additional right to be assessed in an area already assessed; any fails in assessed work under the previous exam regulations will be included. <sup>8</sup>Furthermore the responsible board of examiners may agree suitable transitional arrangements in individual cases, particularly if previous classes are no longer offered as before or if certain classes have been completed, possibly offering partial accreditation and/or requiring certain conditions to be fulfilled, particularly if a "learning agreement" is to be considered.
