

ARCHAEOLOGY OF MONEY

17—18 OCTOBER 2013

THURSDAY, 17 OCTOBER 2013

Bill Maurer (UC Irvine)

Cashlessness, Ancient and Modern

FRIDAY, 18 OCTOBER 2013

Lorenz Rahmstorf (Saarbrücken)

Entangled conceptions of value, weight and money in Copper and Bronze Age societies: examples from Europe and Western Asia

Suzanne Frey-Kupper (Warwick)

Coin finds from classical sites: the coffee grounds of numismatics?

Scott Fitzpatrick (University of Oregon)

Traditional Money in Oceania

Hans Ulrich Vogel (Tübingen)

„Coment le Grant Kaan fait despendre chartre por monioie“: Currencies under Kublai Khan (1215-1294) as Reported by Marco Polo and in Chinese Sources

Lynn H. Gamble (UC Santa Barbara)

The Entangled Life of Shell Beads in North America

Stephanie Wynne-Jones (York) & Jeffrey Fleisher (Rice University)

Aspects of value in Swahili coinage

Mark A. Hall (Perth Museum)

Pennies from Heaven: Money in Ritual in Medieval Europe

Josephus Platenkamp (Münster)

Money alive and money dead. On the cosmology of money transfers in the North Moluccas (Indonesia)

EXHIBITION

More than Money

A special exhibition of traditional monies from Africa, Asia and Oceania which illustrate the broad workshop's theme can be visited at the Institut für Klassische Archäologie during the workshop.

ORGANISERS

Colin Haselgrove (Leicester)

Stefan Krmnicek (Tübingen)

