
An Introduction to Malayālam Cultural Geography and Identity

28. February – 3. March 2017

daily 10-13 h

Keplerstraße 2, room 004

Prof. Scaria Zacharia is the Gundert Chair Professor for Malayalam at Tübingen University.

For this course specially second and third generation Malayalees are invited to participate.

1. A general survey of contemporary Malayalam language languages in contact, language and society
2. Evolution of Malayalam literature Sanskritization, westernization, post-colonialism, globalism, indigeneity
3. Malayalam and translation
semantic translation, semiotic translation
4. Malayalam and mediatization classical art, modern theater and film, electronic media, popular culture, folk art, visual culture
5. Communication and identification women, Dalits, linguistic minority, religious minority, multiculturalism and democracy
6. Internet of things evolution of space and place, cultural geography of Kerala

– No participation fees –

Registration: heike.oberlin@uni-tuebingen.de

Philosophische Fakultät
Asien-Orient-Institut

