

Japanese Religions on the Internet: Innovation, Representation and Authority

Edited by Erica Baffelli, Ian Reader and Birgit Staemmler

List of Figures	vii
List of Tables	ix
Note on Japanese Names, Terms and Transliteration	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
Introduction	1
PART I : Religion and the Internet in Japan: Overview and Concepts
1 Media and Religion in Japan ERICA BAFFELLI, IAN READER AND BIRGIT STAEMMLER	7
2 Internet and Religion in Japan: Innovation, Representation and Authority ERICA BAFFELLI, IAN READER AND BIRGIT STAEMMLER	20
PART II : Case Studies
3 The Situation of Japanese Traditional Buddhism in the Web 2.0 Era: Who Attacks and Who Guards the Religion? FUKAMIZU KENSHIN	39
4 Preserving the Dignity of Shinto Shrines in the Age of the Internet: A Social Context Analysis KUROSAKI HIROYUKI	62
5 The Shikoku Pilgrimage Online: Official Sites, Promotion, Commerce and the Replication of Authority IAN READER	80
6 Pilgrim Leadership Rendered in HTML: Bloggers and the Shikoku Henro JOHN SHULTZ	101
7 Charismatic Blogger? Authority and New Religions on the Web 2.0 ERICA BAFFELLI	118
8 Caught in the Net: Celebrity Representation and Japanese Religion from Historical and Contemporary Perspectives BENJAMIN DORMAN	136
9 Shaping Shamanism Online: Patterns of Authority in Wikipedia BIRGIT STAEMMLER	150
10 Reflexive Self-Identification of Internet Users and the Authority of Sōka Gakkai: Analysis of Discourse in a Japanese BBS TAMURA TAKANORI AND TAMURA DAIYŪ	173
Conclusions and Issues for Future Research ERICA BAFFELLI, IAN READER AND BIRGIT STAEMMLER	196
Bibliography	201
List of Contributors	217
Index	219