ORGANISED SEMINARS, WORKSHOPS, AND CONFERENCES

University of Tübingen

Tübingen, Germany

Organiser of the Exploring Gender, Human Capital, and Labour Intersections in Economic History Winter School 2024

The Exploring Gender, Human Capital, and Labour Intersections in Economic History winter school is an interdisciplinary meeting of economic and labour historians, and development and labour economists focused on discussing the interplay between gender, human capital, and labour scheduled for October 2024. For this I have applied for a substantial amount of University internal funding (€11600) and have secured keynote lectures from interationally field-leading scholars including Prof. Dr. Jane Humphries (LSE/Oxford) and Prof. Dacil Juif (Universidad Carlos III de Madrid).

University of Edinburgh

Edinburgh, U.K.

Co-organiser of the First Annual Graduate Student Conference on Economic and Social History 2023

I co-organised the first graduate student conference in economic history at the University of Edinburgh. For this we secured funds from Economic History Research Seminar of the School of History, Classics, and Archaeology, the University of Edinburgh, and the Edinburgh University Student Association.

Co-convener of the Economic and Social History Research Seminar 2021-2023

Together with Prof. Martin Chick, I organised the School of History, Classics, and Archaeology's economic and social history research seminar series.
