

AEG 2009

Kirsten Oswald

I'm living in Zurich, Switzerland

My occupation

Currently: ETH Zurich, Project Manager Communications at the Swiss Competence Center for Energy Research - Efficient Technologies and Systems for Mobility

2012-2016: Eawag (Switzerland), PhD Student in Surface Waters - Research and Management Department, research topic: Methane oxidation in suboxic and anoxic zones of freshwater lakes

My AEG time

I enjoyed AEG because of its interdisciplinarity and my masters project prepared me well for my following PhD work.
