Comments:

<sup>1</sup> § Section 4 of the Administrative and Usage Regulations of the Tübingen School of Education (Official Announcements of the University of Tübingen 2015, No. 19, p. 822) regulates membership of the TüSE. In addition to the members specified in Section 4 (1), the following groups of persons may apply for membership in accordance with Section 4 (2):

- Full-time academic staff of the university within the meaning of § 44 (1) LHG who work in the field of teacher training or contribute to the tasks of the Tübingen School of Education;
- Doctoral students accepted for doctoral studies who work in the field of teacher training and are members of the university in accordance with § 9 (1) LHG
- Candidates admitted to habilitation who conduct academic work in the field of teacher training and are members of the university in accordance with § 9 (1) LHG

Applications for membership must be submitted in writing to the Executive Board. The Executive Board decides on admission as a member.
