

Guidelines for the Module

“Advanced Module: Research in Literary and Cultural Studies” (B.A. IAS)

- You must attend two seminars to successfully complete this module.
- In one seminar, you complete all required coursework (Studienleistungen) such as presentations, minutes, reading responses etc., and you write a term paper (Prüfungsleistung).
- In the other seminar, you complete all required coursework (Studienleistungen) such as presentations, minutes, reading responses etc., and you do additional coursework.
- The additional coursework consists of:
 - a report of approximately 800 words on a lecture or a conference panel that you have attended (We usually advertise suitable events on our Facebook page, but you are encouraged to look out for other suitable events that interest you.);
 - three informative abstracts of approximately 300 words each; one on a monograph and two on articles that you have found and that are related to the topic of the class; and
 - a short paragraph in which you explain how you found the book and the articles.
- Your grade will be determined by your term paper alone, but you need to successfully complete all other requirements as well to get credit for the module.