

Tübingen Korean Studies Lecture Series

Summer Semester 2025, Wednesdays 18:00 c.t., Wilhelmstraße 133, R. 30

- April 30th      Thomas Eichert (University of Tübingen)
"Between Cooperation and Conflict: German Business in Cold War Korea"
- May 7th      Woo-Kung Huh (Seoul National University)
"The geography of rail transport in the early 20th century Korea"
- May 14th      Hun-tae Kim (University of Latvia)
"한국어 학습자가 알아야 할 한국어 특징 몇 가지 (About some of the characteristics of Korean that Korean learners should know)"
- May 21st      Hye Min Oh (Global Encounters Fellow)
"2030 Women in South Korea 'Into the New World'? - Reading the Generational and Periodic Context through the Lens of Feminism"
- May 28th      Hannah Michell (Author)
"Reading and Discussion" (Großer Senat, Neue Aula)
- June 4th      Su Young Joo (Aix-Marseille University)
"From Folk Tradition to Cultural Heritage: The Case of Pansori"
- June 18th      Kevin Gray (University of Sussex)
"Inter-Korean Relations and the End of Peaceful Reunification: A Social Conflict Approach"
- June 25th      Sijeong Lim (Korea University)
"South Korea's Public Diplomacy"
- June 26th
(Thurs)      Pil Ho Kim (The Ohio State University)
"Polarizing Dreams of Gangnam and Their Desolate Beauty in Ferroconcrete"
- July 15th
(Tues)      Mun-Young Ahn (Chungnam National University)
"Rilke-Rezeption in Korea"