Changes to the date, time, or venue are no longer possible once the registration for the dissertation defense has been submitted.

4. The examiners as well as you will be invited to the examination by the chairperson of the examination board. The examination board and the faculty will be informed by the Dean’s office.

5. You will obtain a certificate with your examination result shortly after the examination from the Dean’s Office, together with information on the publication of your dissertation.

[1] Oral examinations within the doctoral procedure are open to faculty members as laid down by the doctoral regulations in § 13 (4). The presence of the audience is not permitted during consultation of the examiners and the announcement of the results. In case of important reasons or by means of a written, reasoned request, the chairman of the examination board can exclude listeners. Please add such a request where necessary to the registration form for the oral examination.
